ACADEMICS

Mr. Bartow

Sciences

The science courses at MCHS are general science, biology, chemistry, advanced chemistry, and physics. They are taught by Mr. Newcombe, Mr. Riley, and Mr Teichow. General science gives a general background in science. Biology is the study of living things, chemistry is the science dealing with matter and its changes, and physics is the science dealing with energy and the transformations of it.

Mr. Riley

Mr. Riley is demonstrating for some physics students.

... and Mathematics

Mathematics classes include Math 9, Algebra II, solid geometry, and trigonometry. They are taught by Mrs. McCarron, Mr. Teichow, and Mr. Davidson.

Math 9 or algebra is required of all freshmen. In plane geometry students learn axioms, definitions, and theorems. Algebra II is an extension of Algebra I. Solid geometry is a study of three dimensional objects Trig is the study of the basic functions of triangles.

Languages . . .

The language department consists of two basic sections: English and Spanish. The English classes are English 9, English 10, English 11, and English 12. The English teachers are Miss Brown, Miss Cawrse, Mr. Plummer, and Mr. Reed. There are two Spanish classes, Spanish I and Spanish II, which are taught by Mr. Chamberlain. After two years of Spanish, a student will be able to read and speak Spanish.

. . . and Forensics

Forensics class is composed of two parts. The first semester is devoted to debate. This year our team finished in second place in the Blue Water Forensics League. The Varsity Debaters are Dan Giardina, Robert MacDonald, Kay Connors, and Sandra Williams. Orations, declamations, extemporaneous speaking, and humorous and interpretive readings comprise the second semester.

Social Studies

Today's News . . .

Social Studies classes are government, U. S. history, world history, and civics. The classes are taught by Mr. Davidson, Mr. Schankin, and Mr. Chamberlain. Government, which is required of all Seniors, is a study of American government on the national and local levels. U. S. history, required of all Juniors, is the history of our country from colonial to modern times. World history is the history of the world since its beginning. Civics is a general government course.

Shop

Freshman shop is taught by Mr. Connors, Mr. Flemming and Mr. Bartow. Mr. Connors teaches General Metals, Woodworking I and II and Power Mechanics. General Metals studies different kinds and construction of metals. Woodworking I and II are concerned most with the woodworking machines. Power Mechanics is concerned with gasoline engines. Mechanical Drawing is similar to drafting.

Gym

Miss Kimmet

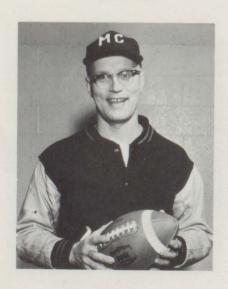

The girls' gym classes are open to all girls with gym required for ninth and tenth grades. The girls play soccer, basketball, volley ball, badminton, and softball.

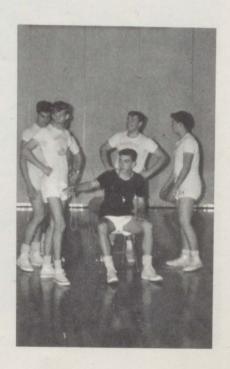

They also participate in stunts and tumbling, trampoline, ice skating, and track and field. They also have a fitness test and do exercises. The gym classes are taught by Miss Kimmet.

Mr. Wiinikainen

The boys' gym classes are taught by Mr. Wiinikainen and Mr. Davidson. They work out on the parallel and chinning bars. They also play football, basketball, baseball, and participate in track. Use of the trampoline, stunts, tumbling, and exercises are all a part of their physical fitness program.

Art

Mr. Werden

Students interested in art have several opportunities to take it. Art I is for beginning students, Art II is for intermediate students, and Art III is for advanced students. They work with the potter's wheel and the jig saw. They use a textbook for art appreciation. The classes make abstract designs, posters, wood objects, cartoons, pottery, plastics, copper jewelry, still lifes, and leather objects. They made the stained glass windows that decorated the cafeteria at Christmas. The art classes are taught by Mr. Werden.

Homecoming . . . '63

Homecoming was held October 4, 1963. This year there were many changes, such as having two representatives from the Junior and the Senior classes and crowning the Queen on Tuesday. Wednesday there was a bonfire climaxed by burning a Cros-Lex player in effigy. The girls were given corsages at the assembly, and Jackie was given red roses at the game. At halftime Jackie was crowned again by Kathy Lewis, last year's queen. During halftime the band presented a show including a dance routine. After the game the dance was held in the girls' half of the gym. The Freshman representative was Joan Beebe; the Sophomore representative Sarah Chapman; the Junior representatives, Sandy Franklin and Vickie Lozen; the Senior Representatives, Sheryl Warwick and Betty Wiginton. Homecoming Queen was Jackie Bellow.

F.H.A.

Industrious club members organizing a project.

The girls have one night activity a month. Their December activity was Christmas caroling. Each girl is on a committee and is responsible for that committee for one month.

The Future Homemakers of America officers are: President, Carol Draves; Vice-President, Lois Summerville; Secretary, Susan Smith; Treasurer, Kathy Beaker; Student Council, Cindy Beckett; sponsors Miss Radtke and Miss Cooper.

Here lies responsibility.

F.F.A.

Peppy future farmers.

The first year of agriculture is an introduction to soil, crops, forestry, dairy, and animal husbandry. Each year the studies become more difficult. Farm mechanics and agricultural economics are added to the Junior and Senior levels. The Future Farmers of America comes from vocational agriculture. The purpose of FFA is to develop leadership. Mr. Bartow is the sponsor. They have a parliamentary procedure team which goes to contests. They plan to raise chickens as a spring project

Science Club

Science club members clean the aquarium and the green house during their meetings. Some members are trying to launch a rocket. One group is studying electronics.

The officers are President Dick Ameel; Vice-President, Floyd Reichle; Secretary, Barton Doetsch; Treasurer, Steve Lipa; and Student Council Representative, Mike Connolly.

Chess Club

The officers of the Chess Club are as follows: President, Gregg Horn; Vice-President, Joe Lisee; Secretary, Mary Jane Hillier; Treasurer, Mike LaBuhn; and Student Council Representative, Ed Duchane. The Chess Club has an average attendance of twenty-five. Because the club is composed of about one-half beginners, they didn't start tournament play at the beginning of the year but plan to later. The club owns twenty chess sets. It meets when A clubs meet and has no extra meetings.

Industrial Arts Club

Officers are President, Tom Kaufman; Vice President, Chuck DeLude; Secretary-Treasurer, Mike Gabbard; Student Council, Larry Summerville

"What do you want?"

"Time for a short break."

Camera Club

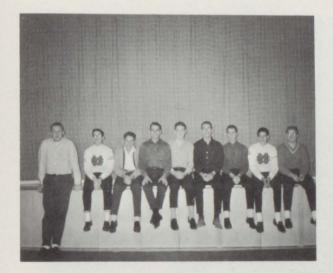

Where there's the clicking of shutters and the flashing of flash-bulbs, you'll find a member of the Marine City High Camera Club. Our club has recently been taking pictures of sports and other school activities. They are guided by Mr. Teichow. Officers are President-Frank Forsyth, Secretary-Sandy Roberts, Treasurer-Peggy Williams.

This is Work?

The line-up.

The Stage Crew is responsible for the stage for all assemblies and for groups who rent the gym at night. They handle the lights and the Public Address System and pull the curtains. The members of the Stage Crew are Harold Dicer, Fred Micoff, Joe Lissee, Gene Toler, Jack Ameel, Jim Plummer, Jerry Potvin, Phil Leatherberry, David Heaslip, and Tim Ruby.

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross officers are: president, Betty Mikolowski; vice-president, Sheryl Warwick; secretary, Judy Fournier; treasurer, Annette Holland. Each year the club has a membership drive. The Junior Red Cross has a large membership; this year they have thirty-three members. A committee is working on a chest to be sent to a disaster area. Another committee has been chosen to buy the articles for the chest made by last year's members.

Smile everybody!

Stage Crew

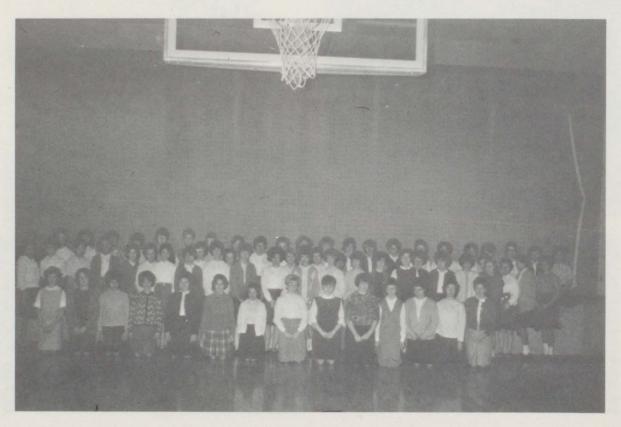

Officers of Pep Club are Sheryl Warwick, Barbara Flemming, Annette Holland, and Kay Connors.

The sign committee displays one of their great signs.

They also have several out-of-school activities that include bowling, horseback riding, and roller and ice skating. They are sponsored by Miss Kimmet.

Varsity Club

The officers.

The Varsity Club officers are Gary Roehring, president; Joe Schellmer, vice-president; Ron Corbat, treasurer; Larry Kammer, secretary; and Tom Bower, Student Council. They are in charge of the refreshment stand at football games, have an initiation for new members, and have a Varsity Club vs. Faculty basketball game.

The Physical Education Club is sponsored by Mr. Wiinikainen. The boys meet every Tuesday night to play different sports and to strive toward their goal, which is physical fitness.

X-Period

The Log Staff uses X-period to put the finishing touches on The Log.

The Thanksgiving assembly was a skit put on by the E-hour speech class.

The D-hour speech class conducted a quiz program in which Seniors and Juniors participated. The superlative Seniors came out on top, as usual!!

X-period is also used to recognize the boys who participate in sports.

NIGHT-TIME

ON THE

It's almost time to go!

Smile pretty.

NILE

Wow! What Fun!

The end of a perfect night!

The Class of 1964 Presents

The Senior Play was held on November 15, 1963. The play centers around the efforts of Pam Jones to keep Elmer B. Ames High School going when she is left in charge. The day goes from bad to worse and is climaxed by the theft of the receipts from the class play, Rusty Wings. "Buzz" Bailey and Shalimar Ames add to the confusion of the play.

The Cast

I admit it. I took the money.

What do you mean remain seated?

Twinkle, twinkle, gray haired mess

..... No More Homework!!

"Do you have to put it on so thick?"

"So what if you've got more red on one cheek!"

"Meanwhile backstage"

"The line-up."

The big day has arrived!

"Do you have to put it in my eye?"

"I'll never forget the play. . ."

"After the play is over."
